

Legacy Event Schedule:

5:15 pm ~ Meet and Greet in the Concession Lobby

Enjoy the music of the Danny Weiss Trio and appetizers by Fika Coffee Wine Nibbles

6:00 pm ~ Dinner in the Opera House Auditorium

Sit down for a plated dinner by Custom Select Catering with dessert featuring pies from Stonehouse Restaurant & Bakery

7:00 pm ~ Program ~ Jeff Smith of WFLI,
TV-18 will interview our honorees on stage

Help us celebrate the achievements and promote the legacies of our honorees...

Brian Lamb, founder of C-SPAN.

Mr. Lamb's Delphi roots go back to his grandfather, Peter Lamb, whose signature can be seen on the back wall of the Opera House as a member of the Delphi Dramatic Club. Mr. Lamb grew up in Lafayette and graduated from Purdue in Communication, where he was honored with the naming of the Brian Lamb School of Communication in 2011.

Abbie VanSickle, Pulitzer Prize-Winning Journalist.

Ms. VanSickle graduated from Delphi High School in 2000. She served as an intern at the Journal and Courier and graduated from UC Berkeley School of Law. Currently a California-based staff writer for The Marshall Project, she was the lead reporter on a year-long investigation into the injuries caused by police dog bites that won the 2021 Pulitzer Prize in National Reporting.

Reserve your spot today! Pay now or pay later.

3 options:

Tickets to the dinner and program are $50 each.

Sponsored tables for 6 are $500; sponsors will be recognized with table placards, on lobby posters, in press releases, and in online promotions.

Program-only tickets are $25 each, limited to 33 seats in the balcony.

2 ways to RSVP: deadline is March 25, 2022:

Purchase your tickets online at www.delphioperahouse.org to pay now (click tickets)

Fill out and mail the enclosed form to: Delphi Preservation Society, PO Box 161, Delphi, IN 46923 or email your complete form to: delhipreservationsociety@gmail.com

Questions?

Email: delhipreservationsociety@gmail.com