

A scenic view of a tree-lined sidewalk on North St. The sidewalk is paved and runs along a grassy area. A large, mature tree with thick branches and dense green foliage stands prominently on the right side of the sidewalk. In the background, a two-story house with light-colored siding and a porch is visible. The scene is bathed in bright, natural light, creating a peaceful and inviting atmosphere.

2023 DPS
WALKING TOUR OF HISTORIC
NORTH ST

#1 - 203 E. NORTH STREET

Home of Shane and Kate Evans

Built between 1861-1862

This South Delphi Hill home is a stunning example of Italianate architecture. With its tall windows, large roof overhang, and tall ceilings, the home proudly overlooks Delphi.

#2 - 127 E. NORTH STREET

Home of Michael and Anita Force

Built in 1929

This Dutch Colonial-Style home was built to withstand the test of time. This architectural style originated in the early 1600s and is known for its gambrel roofs and heavy use of natural materials.

#3 - 107 E. NORTH STREET

Home of Paul Price and Lauren Murfree

Built in 1913

This home is a classic Victorian style, an architectural style with a wide variety of looks. A common feature is a tower or rounded corner on the front of the structure.

#4 - 104 W. NORTH STREET

Home of Kristopher Adams & Kelly Bowsher

Built in 1865

This Italianate-style home was owned in its early days by Mr. and Mrs. Baker Fowler, prominent citizens in the area in the late 19th and early 20th century. Later owners included Mr. and Mrs. Matthias Julius and attorney George M. Smith.

#5 - 116 W. NORTH STREET
Home of Brian and Jami Spitznogle

Built in 1897

This classic steep-pitched-roof home, with elements of Victorian design, such as intricate woodwork and a wraparound porch, was built for Matthias (Mat) Julius.

#6 - 125 W. NORTH STREET
Home of John Allread

Built in 1865

This gorgeous Italianate-style home was built for Lewis B. Sims, a very early arriving (1848) settler to Delphi who would become a prominent Delphi attorney. All subsequent owners have also been attorneys including three generations of Delphi lawyers named Ives.

#7 - 132 W. NORTH STREET

Home of Frank and Theresa Knapp

Built in 1865

This Italianate-style home once had a wraparound porch and shutters. It has had many owners including local attorney Mahlon Kerlin and wife Margaret, Mattie Smock, and Bill and Virginia Bradshaw. Enjoy refreshments in the garden!

#8 - 201 W. NORTH STREET

The Delphinium, owned by Beverly Seese

Built in 1902

This neoclassical home was built by George Odell Cartwright. The oak woodwork, nooks, stairs, beveled leaded glass windows, columns, and fireplace are all highlights. Since 1953, the home has mostly been in the Seese family. Rooms are available for short-term rental at Airbnb.com.

#9 - 217 W. NORTH STREET

Home of Tegan Webb and Andrew Martino

Built in 1870

This Italianate-style home was originally owned by Elizabeth Woodruff followed by Carl Gustavel who sold it to Delphi grocer Frank Wingard in 1922. Note the copper roofs over the bay window and portico.

#10 - 226 W. NORTH STREET

Home of Paige and Debbie Smith

Built in 1865

Civil War Captain Joseph A. Sims built this stately Italianate-style home following the war. Sims' original law office was where the current study is located. Other previous owners include Sim's great-granddaughter, Mary Sims Clauser. Have a seat to enjoy music and watch an artist work.

Return to the Opera House after the tour for a reception and prize drawing!

Enter your completed punch card for the chance to win gift cards, artwork, books, jewelry, and more!

DPS thanks the following restaurants for gift cards:

Mitchell's Mexican Grill

Stonehouse Restaurant and Bakery

Pizza King

Brick and Mortar Pub

Fika

El Rinconcito

DPS thanks the Delphi Opera House,
Carroll County Chamber of Commerce,
Lisa Rush, artist, and Annie Hatke, musician, the Knapps and the Smiths for allowing us to enjoy their gardens, all the other homeowners, and our historians and other volunteers.

DELPHI
preservation
SOCIETY

DELPHI OPERA HOUSE